

Write an ALP that will take an user input of 5 characters (other than enter) and display it as shown below –

For e.g. If user enters ABCDE then the display should be as follows

Foreground should be bright cyan, background should be black. All characters should not blink. Use '?' as the blocking function.

[Note: user will enter 5 characters followed by enter]